D. Beckham

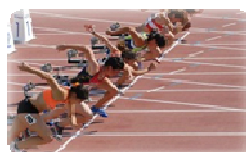

LONDON 2012

The Olympics are always an important event for the host city and following the event there is a period in which the installations are accommodated to the everyday needs of the city. It is of note that the organizers of the 2012 games hope to be remembered as the first in history based in a sustainable development.

.....according to the organizers "the games give us a chance to show how new forms of construction, of living, working, doing business and travelling help our happiness and effect how we treat our planets resources".

There is no one like David Beckham to represent his country in such an important event as the Olympics.

The return of 120 km speed limit

The presidents of the groups 'state accident victims' and 'stop accidents association' have stated this Monday that the deaths of 28 people in traffic accidents this past weekend were a result of the increased speed limit, it was the worst incident of fatal accidents in one weekend since 2009 when 31 lives were lost.
